

International Construction Consulting, LLC

Newsletter Topic Contents

2007:

- 4Q - Independent Project Reviews – New Program Available
- Feasibility Study's – Cost Estimate Component
- Sunk Cost Misconceptions

2008:

- 1Q - Dangers of Project Transitions – Construction Phase
- Effectively Responding to Environmental Activists
- Economic vs Financial Analysis

- 2Q - Constructability Program – What Is It & Why Have One
- Onshore Pipeline Buoyancy Control
- Leasing Basics

- 3Q - Considerations in Developing Contracting Strategies
- Free Stress & Pipe Bends In Liquid Pipelines
- Contingencies – What Are They For

- 4Q - SIMOPS – An Overview
- Blasting Near Existing Pipelines
- International Fiscal Contract Terms

2009:

- 1Q - Pipeline Abandonment Options
- Sand Erosion In Flowlines
- Considering Escalation and Inflation

- 2Q - Independent Project Assessments
- Piping Code Rules of Thumb
- Cash Flow Development

- 3Q - Weight Management
- Velocity Limits for Pipelines
- Leveraging & Project Finance Analysis

- 4Q - Crisis Management Plan Overview
- Code Comparisons for Piping Stress & Supports
- Capital Expenditure (CAPEX) Estimates

2010:

- 1Q - Tender Evaluation Basics
- Critical Issues for HDD Crossings in Cold Weather
- Foreign Tax Credits for US Companies (for now)

International Construction Consulting, LLC

Newsletter Topic Contents

- 2Q
 - Developing Strategic Relationships
 - Hot Tap Design Basics
 - Using Statistics & Probabilities for Investment Decisions

- 3Q
 - Oil Transportation Basics
 - Flaring Issues
 - Upstream Revenue Development for Modeling

PLANNED

- 4Q
 - Purpose of Project Reappraisals
 - Liquid Line Sizing Basics
 - Construction Equipment Rate Buildup

- 2011:
 - 1Q
 - Construction Quality Overview
 - Air Drying Basics for Pipelines
 - Evaluating Non-Operated MCP's